

Personal Supporters

It is expected from full-time staff to raise their own support from individuals, companies and organisations. They are expected to pay such funds into a central remuneration fund on the basis that they donate 10% of such monies to Youth@HEART's central fund towards the covering of administrative costs.